

Down to Earth advice for Farmers

MJ O'Connor
Solicitors

At MJ O' Connor Solicitors, we know from experience that agriculture is a complex and diverse business.

With offices located in farming regions of Wexford, and East Cork we have a large farming client base, first hand knowledge of the day to day issues facing the farming community and are well equipped to deal with the ever changing factors that affect those who live and work on the land.

We recognise that agriculture is a unique sector which requires a dedicated service to provide the legal advice necessary to protect the business and way of life of the farmer. We have called this service down to earth advice as we will provide you with straightforward legal advice in a cost effective manner.

Our team of Brid O'Leary and John O'Leary will provide you with a complete legal service for all of your legal needs including;

Farm acquisition and disposal

Financial Restructuring

Divorce & Family Law issues

Wills, Succession and inheritance tax planning

Partnership Agreements and Disputes

Debt Recovery

Diversification of farm businesses

Rights of Way

Boundary Disputes

Wind Farming

Leasing

Quotas, Forestry, Entitlements etc.
